Recommendations

Received Given

Jamie Ritchey, MPH, PhD
Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Tribal Epidemiology Center Director
July 25, 2011, Jamie worked with Cristin on the same team

Cristin is extremely bright beyond her years. I always benefited from her questions and comments during our upper level epidemiology and biostatistics courses. She is talented, flexible and would be a great addition to any group she chooses to join.

Mitra Yousefi, PhD, MSPH
Director, Epidemiology, Infectious Diseases, COVID-19 Vaccines at Moderna
May 1, 2009, Mitra and Cristin studied together

As a project manager for a study at the University of South Carolina, Cristin demonstrated excellent leadership and problem solving skills. The nature of her work required multitasking, creating the foundation for how samples would be collected and processed for the study, troubleshooting any problems that arose, and working long hours. Her dedication set an example for incoming employees and her welcoming nature encouraged growth in those around her. Aside from training undergraduate students and incoming graduate assistants, Cristin was...
